

Short films but days of laughter at festival

COMEDIANS, film-makers and writers still have time to enter the 2 Days Laughter 48hr. Comedy Shorts Competition, Kent's newest film event.

Beeping Bush Productions, an arts and digital media production company, and Close-Up Film, a national film website and public relations company based just outside Canterbury, already run the annual 2 Days Later 48hr Horror Shorts Competition and Festival, which attracts entries from all over the UK.

For the new competition, organisers are looking for short films or sketches and stand-up or improvisation routines of no more than five minutes.

The shortlisted films will be put before a panel of industry professionals, which includes Ramsgate-born actress Brenda Blethyn.

Those films and other selected entries will be screened on Saturday, April 5, at Margate's Theatre Royal and will end with the 2 Days Laughter awards presentations. Entries close on Friday, March 21.
